

VOTE 411 INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE

Email coming from ted.dellinger@gmail.com

Subject Line: Invitation: League of Women Voters VOTE411

Dear [candidate name],

The League of Women Voters—a nonpartisan organization dedicated to encouraging voting and educating voters—invites you to participate in VOTE411, an online voter's guide that provides candidate information, including for local races, for the 2018 general election.

It is easy to participate. Use the following unique individual link to enter your information and responses directly on the VOTE411 website:

[response link]

When you click on your individual link, you will be asked to enter contact and biographical information and you will be invited to answer the following questions:

[question list]

Please note the character limit for each question. You may want to compose your answers in a word-processing program and upload the file to the site via your link.

(If you forward this email to your campaign manager or other person for assistance with posting your response, please ensure that person uses your individual link to enter your information.)

Your response will be made public on the VOTE411 website. We do not edit responses. Your information will appear exactly as you entered it.

Please respond as soon as you can to maximize the time the public has to learn about you and your candidacy. No responses will be accepted after October 30th. Until that date, you are able to use your link to edit or revise the information you have entered.

We look forward to your participation. If you have any questions, please contact me at ted.dellinger@gmail.com or 732-531-9264.

VOTE411 Administrator
League of Women Voters of the Township of Ocean

VOTE411 was launched nationally in 2006. Since then, 35 million voters have accessed the site. For this election cycle, the League of Women Voters volunteers in Monmouth County are working to cover as many local races as possible, in a strictly nonpartisan manner. We will also be promoting VOTE411 through social and traditional media and in all of our contacts with voters.

When voters enter an address on the VOTE411.org website, they will see information for candidates appearing on their ballot, from the top of the ticket down to local races.
